Duties

Duties may vary depending on the authority of the library board. Advisory boards represent the community and the community's needs. Advisory boards do not have the power to hire library staff or make policy. Policy Making boards are often a library's link to its governing body. Policy boards have the ability to make decisions about programs, budgets, and policies. A policy Making board hires the library director, and the library director is directly responsible to the board. Duties assigned to board members will depend on the library board's Advisory or Policy Making authority.

- Attends all regularly scheduled Library Board meetings
- Attends special meetings as needed
- Attends library functions as appropriate
- Knows and abides by library board bylaws
- Reads board meeting minutes and other materials sent out before the board meetings
- Abides by New Mexico's Open Meetings Act
- Participates appropriately in board meetings
